DETAILED ACTION

A request for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114 was filed in this application after appeal to the Board of Patent Appeals and Interferences, but prior to a decision on the appeal. Since this application is eligible for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114 and the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e) has been timely paid, the appeal has been withdrawn pursuant to 37 CFR 1.114 and prosecution in this application has been reopened pursuant to 37 CFR 1.114. Applicant's submission filed on 10/15/2007 has been entered.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

This application currently names joint inventors. In considering patentability of the claims under 35 U.S.C. 103(a), the examiner presumes that the subject matter of the various claims was commonly owned at the time any inventions covered therein were made absent any evidence to the contrary. Applicant is advised of the obligation under 37 CFR 1.56 to point out the inventor and invention dates of each claim that was not commonly owned at the time a later invention was made in order for the examiner to consider the applicability of 35 U.S.C. 103(c) and potential 35 U.S.C. 102(e), (f) or (g) prior art under 35 U.S.C. 103(a).

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

The factual inquiries set forth in Graham v. John Deere Co., 383 U.S. 1, 148

USPQ 459 (1966), that are applied for establishing a background for determining obviousness under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) are summarized as follows:

1. Determining the scope and contents of the prior art.
2. Ascertaining the differences between the prior art and the claims at issue.
3. Resolving the level of ordinary skill in the pertinent art.
4. Considering objective evidence present in the application indicating obviousness or nonobviousness.

Claims 37, 38 and 41 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Hawtof 6565823 in view of Takahashi 4388098.

See the prior Office actions for the manner in which the combination of references meet the claims.

Claims 39-40 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Hawtof 6565823 in view of Takahashi 4388098 as applied to claims 37-38 and further in view of Ainslie 4923279.

See the prior Office actions for the manner in which the combination of references meet the claims.

Claims 37-45 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Randall 3883336 in view of Hawtof 6565823, Ainslie 4923279, and Takahashi 4388098.

See the prior Office actions for the manner in which the art is applied.

Claims 46-52 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Randall 3883336 in view of Hawtof 6565823, Ainslie 4923279, Takahashi 4388098 and Finnish patent 98832.

See the prior Office actions for the manner in which the combination of references meet the claims.

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments filed 15 October 2007 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

The arguments are substantially the same as previously presented. They are not persuasive for the reasons of record (see rejection of 4/16/2007); those reasons not having been disputed.

As to the arguments regarding Hawtof's intention: Examiner fails to see the relevance of this. What actually happens is examiner's concern – intention is not very relevant; no showing of relevance is presented.

Applicant argues that separate feedstocks are important to the invention. If they are important, then they should be claimed. The claims make no mention of any "feedstock" that examiner could find – nor their being separate. Nor does applicant point out such in any claim.
